

----- Original Message -----

Subject:Re:First on Google

Date:Fri, 23 Mar 2012 14:39:31 +0530

From:<webcommunication2005@gmail.com>

To:<info@pamelaw.com>

Hello

I recent send you an email regarding First on Google.

Let me know if you would be interested in this. We can email you more details or schedule a call. We will be pleased to explain our service in detail.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Regards
Michael

From: Email

Sent: Wed, March 21, 2012 9:50 AM

To: info@pamelaw.com

Subject: First on Google

Hi

I recently visited your website, "www.pamelaw.com", during a routine survey of sites which may be capable of higher search engine performance through Search Engine Optimization (SEO). Efficient SEO brings an increase in online sales or leads. I hope this information may be of use to you, if not then I apologies for any inconvenience caused.

So, here's a summary of my findings on your site:

- Your Google Page rank is 0/10
- You have 0/10 back-links
- Your website has 0/15 pages indexed

I'm going somewhere with all this... I wanted to do my homework and research your website because I want to show you that I have applied some research to your website before contacting you with my proposal. We are in the business of offering 3 benefits for your website:

- 1) Diagnosing and fixing all issues with your website
- 2) Ranking your site to the top of the search results
- 3) Significantly increasing your online revenue levels.

Let me know if you would like to further information by email or we could schedule a call.

I look forward to your feedback

Regards
Michael